

CURRENT HISTORY

*A Monthly Magazine of
The New York Times*

VOLUME VII.

October, 1917—March, 1918

With Index

PUBLISHED BY
THE NEW YORK TIMES COMPANY
NEW YORK CITY, N. Y.
1918

Copyright, 1918
By The New York Times Company
Times Square, New York City

AL
AL
AL

AG
AIN

AIR
ALB
F
m
ALB
ALC
ALE
sl
1
ALE
R
sl
al
ALE
an
St re
ALFC
62
ALGE
ALIE
ALIE

TABLE OF CONTENTS AND INDEX

Volume VII.
[FIRST PART]

October—December, 1917

Pages 1-570

[Titles of articles appear in italics]

A

- ABBAS Hilmi, 282.
- ADAMS, Dr. George, "Harry Lauder at the Front," 319.
- AERONAUTICS, appropriation by Congress, 11; statement of Senator Sheppard on bill legalizing aircraft board; Secretary Baker on "Liberty Motor," 12; "Lessons of Three Years of Warfare in the Air," 73; Sec. Baker's statement on "Liberty Motor," 77; air raids on London; promise of reprisal, by Lloyd George; Gen. Smuts on reprisals, 268; list of raids on England between Jan., 1915, and Oct., 1917; scenes during raids, 269; account of career and death of Guynemer, 271; French activities, 272; U. S. appropriation and contracts; figures of Berliner Tageblatt on airplanes shot down, and reply of London Times, 273; brilliant work at Chemin des Dames, 412; events of month, 458.
- AGADIR Incident, 484.
- AIMS of the War, stated by Pres. Wilson in reply to the Pope's peace proposal, 83; Dr. Michaelis on desires of Entente Allies, 88; resolutions of American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, stating aims of U. S., 90; editorial from Oakland Enquirer, 258; given in German reply to the Pope's peace note, 285; reply of Austrian Emperor, 286; German attitude discussed by Dr. von Kuehlmann and Dr. Michaelis in Reichstag, 288; replies by Lloyd George and Asquith, 289; demands of Austria-Hungary explained by Count Czernin, 290; British view expressed by H. H. Asquith, 291; announcement of League of National Unity, 293; Premier Painleve on minimum aims of France, 294; views of Amer. Federation of Labor, 444.
See also CAUSES of the War; PEACE.
- AIR raids, see AERONAUTICS.
- ALBERT, King of the Belgians, message of Pres. Wilson on Nov. 16, 386; E. Cammaerts on self-denial, 462.
- ALBERT, (Dr.) Heinrich, 22, 281.
- ALCEDO (patrol), torpedoed, 433.
- ALEXANDER I., King of Greece, text of speech after taking oath to constitution, 153.
- ALEXANDRA Feodorovna, Czarina of Russia; account of attitude toward Russian prisoners and reading of decree of abdication, by Gen. Korniloff, 110.
- ALEXEIEFF (Gen.) on disintegration of army, 66; tendered position as Chief of Staff, 71; part in collapse of Korniloff revolt, 72.
- ALFONSO XIII., King of Spain, popularity, 62.
- ALGECIRAS Conference, 484.
- ALIEN Enemies, see ENEMY Aliens.
- ALIEN Property Custodian, 234.
- ALIENS, bill passed authorizing drafting of friendly aliens, 24.
See also ENEMY Aliens.
- ALLEN, H. Warner, estimate of German manpower, 248.
- ALLIES' Commissions to United States, "Imperial Japanese Mission," 50; appeal of French Mission for ships, 232.
- ALLIES War Council, see SUPREME War Council.
- ALSACE-LORRAINE, restoration declared for by Painleve, 1; part in fighting, migrations to France, 195; German attitude toward restoration stated by Dr. Kuehlmann and Dr. Michaelis, 288; replies of Lloyd George and Asquith, 289; attitude of France toward restoration discussed by Premier Painleve, 294; riches in iron ore and potash, 386; views of Count Hertling on division, 452.
- AMERICAN Alliance for Labor and Democracy, resolutions at Minneapolis on war aims, 90.
- American Army in France*, 391.
- AMERICAN Chartering Commission, 19.
- AMERICAN Commission for Relief in Belgium, 387.
- AMERICAN Commission to Allies, 437.
- AMERICAN Embargo Conference, 281.
- AMERICAN Federation of Labor, see LABOR.
- American Labor on War and Peace*, 90.
- AMERICAN Socialist, 236.
- American Troops' First Fight in Europe*, 388.
- AMERICAN Truth Society, 278.
- America's Military Progress During the Month*, 237.
- AMUNDSEN, (Capt.) Raoul, 428.
- ANATOLIA College, Marsovan, murder of Faculty by Turks, 339.
- ANDREWS, William Whiting, 284.
- ANGELSCU, (Dr.) Constantine, "Rumania's Efforts and Aspirations," 524.
- ANNEBAULT, Michel, defense of Belgium against German charges, 493.
- ANNUNZIO, (Capt.) Gabriel d', description of raid on Cattaro, 459.
- ANTHANASIADOS, (Dr.) Anthony, account of Serbian suffering, 340.
- Anti-Submarine Tactics*, 121.
- ANTILLES (transport), torpedoed, 432.
- Appalling Plight of Serbia*, 340.
- ARCHIBALD, James F. J., 279.
- ARGENTINA, account of use of Stockholm Foreign Office by Count Luxburg for transmission of messages from Buenos Aires to Berlin regarding sinking of Argentine ships, 53; avoidance of break with Germany and feeling of people; friction with Uruguay, 245.

Armed and Armored Automobiles in the War, 542.

ARMED Merchant Ships, movement in Congress against Americans traveling on armed ships traced to German propaganda, 281; history of use from earliest times to present war, by T. G. Frothingham, 464; status defined, 469.

ARMENIA, see ATROCITIES.

ARMIES, estimate of U. S. War Dept. giving strength of each belligerent, 480.
See also under names of countries.

ART Works, removed from St. Quentin to Mauberge by Germans, 80.

Artillery Fire for a Canary Bird, 463.

ASIA, see CAMPAIGN in Asia Minor.

ASKALON, in previous wars, 383.

ASQUITH, Herbert H., reference to refusal of Germany to reply to restoration of Belgium, 289; on war aims and peace, at Leeds, 291; speech in opening discussion on Allied War Council, and reply of Premier Lloyd George, I, (Dec. supplement.)

ATROCITIES, Belgian Prince U-boat crime, 55; list of cases of firing on lifeboats by Germans, 131; "Germany and Armenian Atrocities," by Dr. Stuermer, 336; "Armenians Killed with Axes by Turks," account by Rev. G. E. White, 339; "Appalling Plight of Serbia," 340; firing on lifeboats by Germans, 385; bronze plaques to mark sites of German atrocities in Senlis, 455; "Chapter of German Atrocities," 513; firing on lifeboats by submarines told by B. Wood, 514; report of Holland section of League of Neutral Countries on atrocities in Serbia, 517.

Attempted Restoration of the Manchus in China, 346.

Australasia's Record in the War, 526.

AUSTRALIA, method of breaking news of war casualties to relatives, 162; article by R. S. Winn on record in the war, 526.

AUSTRIA-HUNGARY, war council at Lalbach, 34; account of ultimatum to Serbia and reply, by M. L. McLaughlin, 485; in favor of Croatian State, 520.

See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Austro-Italian Border.

Austro-German Invasion of Italy, 404.

Austro-Germans and Islam, 157.

AUTOMOBILES, number in use in the war, 37; first appearance of tanks at battle of Somme, 317; work of motor cars in Italian retreat on Plave line, 407; "Armed and Armored Automobiles in the War," 542.

AVIATION, see AERONAUTICS.

B

BADOGGIO, (Gen.), career, 436.

BAGDAD Railway, negotiations of Lord Haldane and Emperor William, 328.

BAKER, (Sec.) Newton Diehl, on "Liberty Motor," 12, 77.

BAKERIES, under license, 429.

BALFOUR, Arthur James, Chancellor Michaelis on refusal to state war aims, 89.

BALKAN States, part in European politics from early times to present, by M. L. McLaughlin, 481.

See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Balkan States; CROATIA; YUGOSLAVIA, and names of States.

BARRES, Maurice, "How Lorraine Was Saved in 1914," 325.

Battle of the Julian Alps, 38.

BATTLES, see CAMPAIGNS, NAVAL Operations.

BAZAINE, Marshal, account of treason, 198.

Beginnings of the War, 481.

BELGIAN Prince (S. S.), account of deliberate drowning of crew by German submarine, told by survivors, 55.

BELGIUM, Gen. Leclercq, on creating of new army, 98; article by Baron Moncheur on starvation and shortage of food, 100; fighting strength and finances, 192; comment of H. H. Asquith on restoration, 289; impressions of E. Cammaerts of war zone, 460; account of German attitude toward invasion, by M. L. McLaughlin, 490; account of guarantee of neutrality, 491; defense of invasion by Bethmann Hollweg, 492; article by M. Annebault based on findings of Documentary Bureau on charges of Germans that soldiers were fired upon by free-shooters, 493; "Systematic Exploitation of Belgium," 510; protest from Mayor of Lille against levies by Germans, 512.

See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Western.

BELLIGERENTS, countries involved in war, 5, 219.

BENEDICT XV., Pope, peace letter and restoration of temporal power, 6; text of reply by Pres. Wilson to peace proposal, 81; comment of New-Yorker Staats-Zeitung and of foreign press on reply, 83; interpretation of peace note by Dr. Michaelis in Reichstag, 86; attitude of parties in Reichstag toward note, 87; German and Austrian replies to peace note, 285; Brazilian reply to peace note, 439.

BENNETT, Arnold, "Effect of the United States in the War," 446.

BERCHTOLD (Count), 487.

BERLINER Tageblatt, figures for air warfare; reply of London Times quoting Paris Matin, 273.

BERNADOTTE, see CHARLES XIV. of Sweden.

BERNSTEIN, Edward, speech quoting H. Haase on Reichstag Peace Resolution and political changes, 96.

BERNSTORFF, (Count) Johann H. von, account of intrigues in U. S. as disclosed by capture of von Igel papers, 274; text of dispatch asking for money to influence Congress, 279; text of telegrams to von Jagow bearing on Bolo Pacha case, 283.

BETHMANN HOLLWEG, (Dr.) Theobald von, letter from von Eckhardt recommending decoration for Herr Cronholm, 53; E. Bernstein on fall, 96; quoted on unrestricted submarine warfare, 130; conversation with Lord Haldane, 329; speech in Reichstag on invasion of Belgium, 492.

BIDDLE, (Maj. Gen.) John, 425.

BIRDS, "Artillery Fire for a Canary Bird," 463.

BIRTHS, see VITAL Statistics.

BISSING, (Gen.) Moritz von, quoted on exploitation of Belgium, 512.

BLACK, Ernest Garside, poem, "Written on Going Into Action," 295.

BLIND, soldiers in England, France, and Belgium, 198.

BLISS, (Gen.) Tasker H., commissioned General, 238; military adviser to Col. House at Supreme War Council, 438.

BLOCKADE, British, given as cause of U-boat warfare by German seamen, 126; reply by British seamen, 129.

BLOCKADE, German, see SUBMARINE Warfare.

BOEHM (Capt.), 278.

BOIS, Jules, 283.

BOLO Pasha, Paul, account of activities as German agent in France and U. S., 282.

BORGEMEISTER, P. A., 22.

BOSCH Magneto Works, 276.

- BOWMAN, Thomas, 58.
 BOY-ED, (Capt.) Karl, 23.
Boy's Last Letter to His Mother, 252.
 BRAUN, Marcus, 279.
 BRAZIL, origin of name, and discovery, 384; entry into war against Germany; Luxemburg dispatches on Brazilian attitude; reply to Pope's peace note, 439.
 BREMEN, Chamber of Commerce, resolution of loyalty to Kaiser, and protest against Pres. Wilson's reply to the Pope, 87.
Bronze Plaques to Mark the Sites of German Atrocities, 455.
 BUREAU of Investigation, shown to be adjunct to German diplomatic secret service, 275.
 BURLESON, Albert Sydney, on new censorship provision, 235.
 BUSH, Irving T., 428.
 BYNG, Admiral John, account of treason, 197.
- C
- CADORNA, (Gen.) Luigi, campaigns, 146, 393; appointed to Allies' General Staff, 397, 434.
 CAFANTARIS, George, favors Greek republic, 154.
 CAMBON, Jules, telegram on German mobilization, 502.
 CAMMAERTS, Emile, "What the Belgian Army Is Doing," 460.
 CAMOUFLAGE, 99.
 CAMPAIGN in Asia Minor, capture of Ramadie by Anglo-Indian army, 204; situation, 205; Russians in Asia Minor, 206; British advance from Gaza to Jaffa, with Jerusalem threatened, 401.
 CAMPAIGN in Europe, Austro-Italian Border, Italian offensive in August summed up by W. Littlefield, 31; "Battle of the Julian Alps," 38; official narrative of operations of Gen. Cadorna's forces from March to June, 146; Gen. Giardino on Italian theatre of war, 197; events in September, 206; "Story of the Great Battle for Venice," by W. Littlefield, 393; "Austro-German Invasion of Italy," 404.
 CAMPAIGN in Europe, Balkan States, account by Maj. Dayton of defeat of Serbia, 119; disclosures concerning Germano-Bulgarian incursion into Eastern Macedonia in Greek White Papers, 152; account of betrayal of Rumania by Russia, 167; defeat of Rumania in 1916, 478.
 CAMPAIGN in Europe, Eastern, difficulties confronting Teuton armies compared with Napoleonic invasion of Russia, 3; fall of Riga, 34; text of announcement of fall of Riga, in Berlin and in Petrograd, 68; congratulations of Kaiser on capture of Riga, 69; German capture of Jacobstadt, 204; methods of von Hindenburg at Tannenberg compared with those of Joffre at Marne, 320; "Spring and Summer of 1916 on the Russian Front," by Maj. Dayton, 473.
 CAMPAIGN in Europe, Western, events of month summed up by W. Littlefield, 30; French success at Verdun, 37; "Desperate Fighting of the Canadians at Lens," by P. Gibbs, 44; "Scene of Carnage at Le Mort Homme," 48; Gen. Freytag-Loringhoven on Marne retreat, 72; account of German attack on Verdun in 1916, by Maj. Dayton, 113; progress of battle of Flanders, 199; "Halg's Hammer Strokes in Flanders," description of battles during Sept. and Oct. by P. Gibbs, 207; Maj. Dayton on battle of the Somme, 310; methods of Joffre at the Marne compared with those of von Hindenburg at Tannenberg, 320; "How Lorraine Was Saved in 1914," by M. Barres, 325; first battle of American troops, 388; renewal of battle of Flanders, 398; "Petain at Chemin des Dames," 399; German retreat, 400; account of capture of Fassinendaele Ridge, 409; "French Victory at Chemin des Dames," 412; "What the Belgian Army Is Doing," by E. Cammaerts, 460.
 CAMPAIGN in Turkey, Anzacs at Gallipoli, 528.
 CANADA, provisions of draft law, 2; co-operation with U. S. for licensing of exports, 240; von Igel plots, 278.
 CANADIAN Pacific Railway, telegram from Zimmermann to Bernstorff on proposed destruction, 280.
 CANTACUZENE, (Dr.) J., 522.
 CANTONMENTS, see CONCENTRATION Camps; UNITED STATES—Army.
 CAPELLE, (Admiral) von, 248.
 CAPPS, (Rear Admiral), W. L., 18.
 CARRY, Edward F., 427.
 CARSO, see CAMPAIGN in Europe, Austro-Italian Border.
 CARSON, (Sir) Edward, support of plan for Supreme War Council, VIII., (Dec. supplement); "Desolation in the French War Zone," 456.
 CASEMENT, (Sir) Roger, 277.
 CASSIN (destroyer), torpedoed, 433.
 CASTELNAU, (Gen.) de, 116.
 CASUALTIES, British losses in Flanders, 2; Austrian in August, 33; estimate of German losses at Lens, 45; estimate of casualties at first attack on Verdun, 119; method of breaking news to relatives in Australia, 162; comparison between losses in troops from United Kingdom and from dominions, 197; in air raids on England from Jan., 1915, to Oct., 1917, 269; British battle losses and percentage of home and dominion troops; summary of Australian losses since beginning of war, 386; official list of first American losses in France, 390; in Asia Minor campaign, 403; Russian from beginning of war, 420; British losses in transport, 472; Rumanian losses, 524.
 CATTARO, air raid, 459.
 CAUSES of the War, statement by Dr. Michaeils on Russian responsibility as disclosed in trial of Gen. Soukhomlinoff, 91; declaration by delegates to London conference of Socialists, 94; official conversations of Lord Haldane at Berlin in 1906 and 1912 bearing on issues of the war, 328; article by M. L. McLaughlin reviewing antecedent causes and thirteen critical days, 481; "Kaiser's Responsibility," analysis by D. J. Hill of official documents, 496; testimony of Gen. Yanuskevitch and Gen. Soukhomlinoff, at trial of latter, on Russian mobilization, 505; comment by J. Reinach on testimony, 507; text of letters between King George and Kaiser, 508.
See also Aims of the War.
 CECIL, (Lord) Robert, statement expressing official view of the Pope's peace note, 89.
 CENSORSHIP, see NEWS Censorship.
 CHANG Hsun, 351, 354.
 CHARLES I., Emperor of Austria-Hungary, reply to the Pope's peace note, 286; favors a Croatian State, 520.
 CHARLES XIV., King of Sweden, 196.
 CHEN, Eugene, 348.
 CHINA, modern problem, 196; article by W. R. Wheeler, "The Attempted Restoration of the Manchus in China," 346; distrust of Japan, 347; duties of U. S. as expressed by Wu Ting-fang, C. T. Wang, and T. F. Millard, 352; "Surrender of Chang Hsun's Army," 354; statement of Viscount Ishii on Japanese policy and assuring U. S. of open door, 356; treatment of enemy aliens, 358; text of

- Lansing-Ishli agreement recognizing American interests in China, 547.
- CHOULGINE, V. V., account of Czar's abdication, 264.
- Chronology of the War*, 27, 220, 415.
- CIPHERS, historical examples of use, 3.
- CLEMENCEAU, Georges, takes Premiership and War Portfolio, 381.
- CLOTHING, salvaging in France, 453.
- Clothing and Food Control in the Central Empires*, 448.
- COAL, brought under jurisdiction of Govt. and prices fixed, 228; Dr. Garfield asks for embargo on export; ban on bunker coal with approval of Allies and effect on neutral shipping, 240; Gen. von Bissing on value of Belgian coal to Germany, 512.
- COFFIN, Howard E., 223.
- COHALAN, Daniel F., involved in German plot for Irish rebellion, 277.
- COLBY, Bainbridge, 18, 427.
- Comment of the Nations on the President's Reply*, 83.
- COMMERCE, co-ordination of purchases of U. S. and allied powers, 226; organization of U. S. War Trade Board, 233. See also EXPORTS; SHIPPING; TRADING with the Enemy Act.
- CONCENTRATION Camps, U. S. Army, 10. See also UNITED STATES—Army.
- CONGER, George P., "In the War Prisons of Eastern Siberia," 533.
- CONSCRIPTION, see CANADA; UNITED STATES—Army.
- CONGRESS of Berlin, 481.
- CONGRESS of Vienna, article by A. Westcott, 538.
- CONSTANTINE I., King of Greece, relations with Kaiser as disclosed in "White Book," 152; disclosure of war policy, before Commission of Inquiry, 256; German-Turkish alliance, 334; telegrams of Constantine and Queen to German Emperor, pledging loyalty, 457.
- COPPER, price fixed, 228.
- COSSACKS, demand for continuation of war and army reform, 66; history and present strength, 385. See also RUSSIA—Army.
- COST of War, to Russia, 64; expenditures of U. S., England, Germany, and Russia, 430. See also FINANCE.
- COSTA Rica, break with Germany, 244.
- COUNCIL of National Defense, organization, 223; work of War Industries Board in mobilizing country for war, 224; work of Railroads' War Board, 228.
- Creating Belgium's New Army*, 98.
- CROATIA, plan for formation of State by union of Dalmatia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, Montenegro, Serbia, and Croatia, 520. See also YUGOSLAVIA.
- CRONHOLM, Folke, recommended for decoration by German Govt. for services as intermediary, 53.
- Current History Chronicled*, 1, 191, 381.
- CZERNIN von Chudenitz, (Count) Ottokar von, address on war aims of Austria-Hungary, 290.
- D
- DABO, (Dr.) Leon, account of atrocities told at Merchants' Assoc. dinner, 515.
- DAGOE Island, 194.
- DANIELS, (Sec.) Josephus, on value of destroyers, 13; on completion of destroyers in comparison with other years, 387.
- DARDANELLES Operations, Anzacs in campaign, 528.
- DATO, Eduardo, as Premier, 59.
- DAVIDSON, (Most Rev.) Randall T., Archbishop of Canterbury, war sermon in Westminster Abbey at opening of fourth year of war, 143.
- DAVIS, (Dr.) Robert, 463.
- DAYTON, (Maj.) Edwin W., "Military Operations of the War," 113, 310, 473; construction of automobile fort, 543.
- DECLARATIONS of War, List, 219.
- DELCASSE, Theophile, 482.
- DELESALLE, Charles, 513.
- DELMER, F. Sefton, account of lecture by Count zu Reventlow on freedom of the seas, 345.
- Democratic Agitation in Germany*, 88.
- DENMAN, William, resignation, 18.
- DEPORTATIONS, see BELGIUM; FRANCE; SERBIA.
- Desolation in the French War Zone*, 456.
- Desperate Fighting of the Canadians at Lens*, 44.
- DESTROYERS, see UNITED STATES—Navy.
- Destruction of St. Quentin Cathedral*, 80.
- DEVOY, John, 277.
- DIAZ, (Gen.) Armando, succeeds Cadorna, 397; career, 436.
- DILLON, (Dr.) Edward J., 7.
- DISARMAMENT, Naval, Count Czernin on, 290.
- Disease Germ Plot at Bucharest*, 284.
- DOGGER Bank Incident, 332.
- DOGS, article by H. Wood on use in war, 161.
- DOYLE, (Sir) Arthur Conan, poem "The Guns in Sussex," 93.
- DRAGOMIROFF (Gen.), 72.
- DRAKE (cruiser), torpedoed, 246.
- DRUNKENNESS, decline in England, Wales, and Scotland, 382.
- E
- EASTMAN, Max, 286.
- ECKHARDT, (Minister) von, letter to Bethmann Hollweg recommending Herr Cronholm for decoration, in return for aid to Germany, 53.
- ECUADOR, German Minister handed passports, 244.
- Effect of the United States in the War*, 446.
- EGGELING, (Maj.) von, 92.
- EMBARGO, see EXPORTS.
- EMDEN (cruiser), exploits and sinking, 528.
- EMERGENCY Fleet Corporation, see SHIPPING Board.
- EMERSON, Edwin, 279.
- Enemies Within the United States*, 20.
- ENEMY Aliens, Government treatment of, 20; under provisions of Trading with the Enemy act, 234. See also CHINA; GERMAN Plots.
- ENGLAND:—
 Army—Figures refuting charge that Dominion soldiers were sent to front while home troops were held back, 197; "War Record of the British Dependencies," 359; contributions of dominions, 387; work of Australasia, 526. See also CANADA; SUPREME War Council.
 Finances, revenue income for six months, 198; expenditures since beginning of war, 430.
 German hatred of, expressed in address of Emperor William, 2.

Germany, Relations with, official conversations of Lord Haldane in Germany in 1906 and 1912 bearing on issues of the war, 328; negotiations at outbreak of war analyzed by D. J. Hill, 499; text of letters exchanged between King and Kaiser at outbreak of war, 508.
See also CAUSES of the war.
 Navy, vast service described by A. Hurd, 137; work in transporting troops and supplies summed up by Lloyd George, 472.
 United States, Relations with, see UNITED STATES—England.
 Zeppelin Raids, see AERONAUTICS.
English in India, 530.
 ENRIGHT, Thomas F., 389.
 ENTENTE Cordiale, 483.
 ENVER Pasha, and entry of Turkey into war, 334.
 ESPIONAGE Act, purpose, 232; clause regarding nonmailable matter, 235.
 EUROPEAN Politics, article by M. L. McLaughlin on causes of the war, 381; article on problems of Congress of Vienna by A. Westcott, 538.
See also CAUSES of the War.
 EXPLOSIVES, U. S. production and export, 8.
 EXPORTS, licenses granted by War Trade Board, 233; Trading with the Enemy Act, 233; "Worldwide Embargo Against Germany," and effect on neutral countries, 239; U. S. refusal of recognition to Holland re-exporting to Germany, 241.
 EXPORTS Council, see WAR Trade Council.

F

FABRIUS (Herr), 88.
 FAIR Play Publishing Co., involved in German plots, 279.
 FASHODA Incident, 482.
 FEDERAL Trade Commission, 227.
 FENG Kuo-chang, 351.
 FERDINAND, King of Rumania, offers lands for agrarian reform, 523.
 FICKE, Heinrich, 22.
Fighting Hostile Submarines, 132.
 FINANCE, Belgium financed by Allies, 192; "Japan's Financial Aid to the Allies," 193; embargo on exportation of corn, bullion and currency from U. S., 239; U. S. gives $230,000,000 credit to Italy, 408; official credits and advances by U. S. to the Allies, expenditures of U. S., England, Germany, and Russia, 430.
See also under names of countries.
Financing America's War Needs, 242.
 FINLAND, race question, 8.
 FLAG, American, account of presentation of first American flag carried on French front to French Govt., 78.
 FLANDERS, see CAMPAIGN in Europe, Western.
 FLOUR, export controlled by Govt., 429.
 FOCH (Gen.), appointed to Interallied Staff, 397; career, 436.
 FOODSTUFFS:—
 Austria-Hungary, situation described by Lieut. Virgili, 450.
 Belgium, shortage and starvation of women and children described by Baron Moncheur, 100.
 Germany, shortage described by a Hollander, 155; situation and weekly ration, 449.
 Russia, M. Prokopovitch on scarcity, 64.
 Spain, scarcity as cause of unrest, 59.
 United States, work of Food Administration in control of wheat, sugar, and other supplies, 236; further Govt. control, sugar shortage and pledge cards, 428.
See also EXPORTS.

For Women Who Write to Soldiers, 254.

FOREIGN Legion, presentation to France of flag carried by Americans, 78; list of Americans in 2d Regiment, 79.

FORTRESS, see MILITARY Science.

FRANCE, change in Ministry, 1; account of presentation of first flag carried on French front by Americans in Foreign Legion, 78; difficulties in securing ships to convey army supplies from U. S., 232; activities of Bolo Pacha as German agent, 282; aid to Belgian refugees; aid to education of Serbian youth, 309; plan by Germany and Russia to include in treaty against England, 331; fall of Painleve Ministry and formation of Cabinet by G. Clemenceau, 381; need of reconstruction work described by J. Galsworthy, 454; desolation of war zone described by Sir E. Carson, 456; account of deportation in letter from young girl, 514.

See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Western; SUPREME War Council.

France Vous Salue, Etoiles!

FRAYNE, Hugh, 224.

FREEDOM of the Seas, see INTERNATIONAL Law.

FRENCH Commission to United States, see ALLIES' Commissions.

FRENCH Revolution, compared with Russian revolution, 2.

French Victory at Chemin des Dames, 412.

French War Economics, 452.

FREYTAG-Loringhoven, (Lieut. Gen. Baron) von, comment on Marne retreat, 72.

FROTHINGHAM, Thomas G., "Rise and Fall of the Formal Fortress," 300; "The Armed Merchantman," 464.

FUEL Administration, see COAL.

FUSANOSUKE, Kuhara, 198.

G

GALE, George W., "Spurlos Versenkt," 546.

GALLIPOLI, see DARDANELLES.

GALSWORTHY, John, description of war victims in France, 454.

GALVAN, Manuel de J., "Spain and the World War," 58.

GARFIELD, (Dr.) Harry A., 223.

GEDDES, (Sir) Eric, on submarine situation, first speech in House, 431.

GENERAL Staff, see SUPREME War Council.

GEORGE V., King of England, text of message to Kaiser through Prince Henry, 499; documents of correspondence between King George and Emperor William on outbreak of war, 508.

GERARD, James W., letter to German Chancellor at outbreak of war in 1914, 489; statement on invasion of Belgium, 491.

GERMAN and Austro-Hungarian Labor Information and Relief Bureau, 276.

GERMAN New Guinea, capture by Australasia, 527.

German Peace Propaganda, 285.

GERMAN Plots, article on intrigues of von Bernstorff and others as disclosed in von Igel's papers, based on Official Bulletin report, 274; disease germ and explosive plot at Bucharest, 284.

GERMAN Samoa, capture by Col. Logan, 526.

GERMAN Seamen's Union, defense of submarine warfare, 126; British Seamen's reply, 128.

German Socialist on the Reichstag Resolutions, 96.

GERMAN Propaganda, report by L. Marin on war propaganda in Moslem countries, 157.

See also GERMAN Plots.

German War Losses, 62.

GERMANS in America, see ENEMY Aliens; GERMAN Plots.

GERMANS in Brazil, number, 439.

GERMANS in China, treatment as enemy aliens, 358.

GERMANY:—

Army, French estimate of man power, 62; order of Gen. Ludendorff on conserving "human material," study of German man power by H. W. Allen, 248; time of mobilization, 489; documents bearing on mobilization, discussed by D. J. Hill, 502.

Conditions, described by Holland goldsmith, 155; clothing shortage, 448; described by Ellen Worfolk, 450.

See also FOODSTUFFS.

England, Relations with, see ENGLAND—Germany, Relations with.

Finances, total credit voted for war, 430.

Navy, account of mutiny, 248.

Politics, unrest and agitation among factions, 88; fall of Bethmann Hollweg, rise of Michaelis, 96; Count von Hertling succeeds Dr. Michaelis as Chancellor, 451.

Reichstag, attitude of various parties toward Dr. Michaelis's interpretation of the Pope's peace notes, 87.

Russia, Relations with, Kaiser-Czar correspondence, 1904-07; with object of defeating English pressure, by alliance of Germany, Russia, and France, 331.

United States, Relations with, see UNITED STATES—War with Germany.

Vital Statistics, effect of war shown in article on waning man power, 247.

Germany After Three Years of War, 155.

Germany and the Armenian Atrocities, 336.

Germany's Waning Man Power, 247.

GIARDINO (Gen.), on Italy's part in the war, 197.

GIBBON, Perceval, description of evacuation of Udine, 404.

GIBBS, Philip, "The Desperate Fighting of the Canadians at Lens," 44; "Haig's Hammer Strokes in Flanders," 207; account of Passchendaele Ridge, 409.

GIBRALTAR, offered to Spain by Germany, 430.

GILL, (Lieut. Commander) Charles C., "Anti-Submarine Tactics," 121.

GLATFELDER, Rudolph, 249.

GOETHALS, (Maj. Gen.) George W., and Emergency Fleet Corporation, 17.

GOLD (as money), embargo on export, 239.

GOMPERS, Samuel, presides over American Federation of Labor, 90; tribute by Pres. Wilson, 443.

"Good-bye, Soldier Boys," 258.

GORE, Thomas Pryor, 281.

GRASTY, Charles H., "Submarine Sinkings in Eight Months," 137; on drop in shipping losses, 246.

Great American Mercantile Marine for the War Emergency, 17.

GREECE, summary of disclosures in "White Book" of Constantine's relations with Germany and Germano-Bulgarian incursion into Eastern Macedonia, 152; throne speech of King Alexander after taking oath to Constitution, 153; statement of Premier Venizelos on possibility of republic; views of G. Cafantaris, 154; "Acts of Pro-German Cabinet Under King Constantine Revealed Before Commission of Inquiry," 256; army to be mobilized as soon as equipment can be supplied; address of G. Roussos on presentation of credentials to U. S., 257; "White Book" reveals secret treaty between Turkey and Germany, 334; telegrams of King Constantine Revealed Before Commission of official charges of Commission of Inquiry against Skouloudis-Gounaris Cabinet, 457.

GRESHAM, (Corporal) James B., 389.

GREY, (Sir) Edward, negotiations at outbreak of war, 486, 500.

Guns in Sussex, 93.

Guns of Flanders, 134.

GUYNEMER, (Capt.) Georges, career and death, 271.

H

HAASE, Hugo, present at Stockholm conference, 95; quoted by E. Bernstein on peace resolution in Reichstag and political changes, 96.

HADELN, (Lieut. Baron) de, 80.

HAIG, (Gen. Sir) Douglas, telegram of appreciation from Lloyd George, 207; preparation for Somme battle, 311.

See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Western.

Haig's Hammer Strokes in Flanders, 207.

HAIR, rumor of use of women's hair in place of leather in Germany, 449.

HALDANE (Viscount), account of Mission to Germany in 1906 and 1912, 328.

HAMBURG, Chamber of Commerce, resolution protesting against Pres. Wilson's reply to the Pope, and pledging loyalty to Kaiser, 87.

HAMBURG-American S. S. Line, 275.

HANOTAUX, Gabriel, "Joffre and Hindenburg: Their Methods and Battles," 320.

HANSON, H., 276.

HAY, Merle D., 389.

HEFLIN, James Thomas, 279.

HENDERSON, Arthur, 94.

HENRY, Prince of Prussia, message to King George at outbreak of war, 508.

HERTLING, (Count) Georg F., named Chancellor, 451; career, 452.

HEYNE, Carl, 22.

HEYWORTH, James, 428.

HILL, David Jayne, "The Kaiser's Responsibility," analysis of official documents, 496.

HILLQUIT, Morris, 234.

HINDENBURG, (Gen.) Paul von, comparison of methods at Tannenberg with those of Marshal Joffre at the Marne, by G. Hantaux, 320.

Historic Peace Conference, 538.

HOLLAND, causes of neutrality, 194; shipping tied up in N. Y. Harbor by ban on bunker coal; refusal of U. S. recognition to agreement with Germany on percentage of exports; U. S. demands on Dutch shipping, 241.

HOLLANDE, Eugene, poem "La France Vous Salue, Etoiles!" 495.

HOLMES, (Col.) William, 526.

Homesick Soldier's Letters, 222.

HOPKINS, Charles P., reply to German Seamen's defense of U-boats, 128.

HOUSE, (Col.) Edward M., mission to the Allies, 437.

How Greece Prolonged the War, 256.

How Lorraine Was Saved in 1914, 325.

HOWARD, Wm. Schley, 279.

HUGHES, William M., defeat of German metal ring, 528; pooling of wheat purchases; visit to Allied Economic Conference, 529.
HUMBERT, Charles, involved in intrigues of Bolo Pacha, 283.
HURD, Archibald, survey of blockade activities and submarine warfare of year, 134.
HURLEY, Edward N., 18.

I

IGEL, Wolf von, German intrigues revealed by capture of papers, 274.
ILITCH (M.), 166.
Imperial Japanese Mission, 50.
In the War Prisons of Eastern Siberia, 533.
INCOME Tax, U. S., 243.
INDIA, constitutional developments, 7; summary of history and what England has accomplished, 530.
INDUSTRIAL Workers of the World, 24.
INDUSTRIES, see UNITED STATES—Economic Mobilization.
INSURANCE, provisions of soldiers' and sailors' insurance bill, 191, 238; reduction of marine rates, 246.
INTERALLIED General Staff, creation, 434. See also SUPREME War Council.
INTERNATIONAL Conference of Socialists, at Stockholm, 94.
INTERNATIONAL Law, Count Reventlow on freedom of the Seas, 345.
INTERNATIONAL Transport Workers' Federation, letter of Central Council in Berlin on U-boat warfare, 126; withdrawal of unions from allied and neutral countries, 131.
INTERNATIONAL Treachery, instances, 193.
INTERNED Ships, seizure and use by U. S., 17.
IRON, in Lorraine and value to Germany, 386.
ISHII, (Viscount) Kikujiro, account of visit, and addresses as head of Imperial Japanese Mission, 50; address at Mayor's banquet, New York, pledging open door to U. S. in China and Japan, stating policy in China and intrigue of Germany, 356; statement to newspapers clarifying address at Mayor's banquet, 357; text of agreement with Sec. Lansing on relations with U. S. in China and in Pacific, 547; statement on agreement, 550.
IRELAND, connection between German Diplomatic Service in U. S. and Sinn Fein rebellion, 277.
Italian Army's Spring Offensive, 146.
ITALY, Gen. Giardino on efforts in war and number of men mobilized, 197; changes in army leaders, 436.
See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Austro-Italian Border; SUPREME War Council.

J

JAGOW, Gottlieb von, dispatches to Bernstorff on Bolo Pacha case, 283.
JANUSHKEVITCH, see YANUSHKEVITCH.
JAPAN, financial aid to the Allies, 193; new shipbuilding enterprise of Kuhara Fusanosuke, 198; difficulties with shipping, plans help for U. S. shipping, 232; Chinese distrust of, 347; statements of Viscount Ishii on policy toward China and assuring U. S. of open door, 356; statement of W. H. Taft on "gentlemen's agreement" with U. S., 357; text of Lansing-Ishii agreement on U. S. and Japan in the Pacific and in China, 547.
JAPANESE Mission to United States, see ALLIES' Commissions.

JERROLD, Laurence, "The American Army in France," 391.
JERUSALEM, previous periods in which city has been involved in warfare, 382.
See also CAMPAIGN in Asia Minor.
JEWS, T. Jonescu on question in Rumania, 525.
JOFFRE, (Marshal) Joseph, comparison of methods at Marne with those of von Hindenburg at Tannenberg, by G. Hano-taux, 320.
JONESCU, Take, address on Jewish question in Rumanian Chamber, 525.
JUGOSLAVIA, see YUGOSLAVIA.
July 1914, 151.

K

Kaiser's Responsibility, 496.
KALEDINE (Gen.), statement of demands of Cossacks, in Moscow Conference, 66.
KAWAKAMI, K. K., "China's Treatment of Enemy Aliens," 358.
KEATING, John P., 281.
KENYON, William Squire, 281.
KERENSKY, Alexander F., proclamation of Russian Republic, 1; extracts from speeches at Moscow Conference, 63, 67; action in response to demands of Gen. Korniloff, 70; sketch of life, by V. V. Kiryakoff, 102; extracts from speeches in Duma foreshadowing revolution, 107; names coalition Cabinet, 259; last statement before overthrow; account of collapse of Govt., 419.
KHAIRALLAH, K. T., "Turkey's Heavy Hand in Syria," 160.
KIRYAKOFF, V. V., "Story of Kerensky's Life," 102.
KITCHENER, (Lord) Horatio Herbert, proposal for War Council, III., (Dec. Supplement.)
KLEMBOVSKY (Gen.), 70.
KOENIG, Paul, 275.
KOO, (Dr.) Wellington, on U. S. and the problem of the Far East, 353.
KOPRIVITSA, Vidak, 341.
KORNILOFF, (Gen.) Laurus G., extract from speech at Moscow Council, stating need of reform in army, 65; account of army revolt against Kerensky Govt. under leadership of, 69; personal estimates of; account of attitude of Czarina toward Russian prisoners and reading of decree of abdication, 110; statement on revolt, 261.
KUEHLMANN, (Dr.) Richard von, speech in Reichstag on Papal peace note, 288.

L

LABOR, American Alliance, resolutions stating war aims, 90; address of Pres. Wilson before Amer. Federation of Labor, 441; report of federation on war issues, 444; view on conscription of labor, 445.
LABOR'S National Peace Conference, 281.
LANGUAGE, "Slang and Slogans of War in France," 250.
LANSING, (Sec.) Robert, announcement of use of Swedish Foreign Office by Count Luxburg for dispatching telegrams to Berlin, 53; transmission of Pres. Wilson's reply to the Pope's peace proposal, 81; text of announcement of Amer. Commission to Allies, 437; text of agreement with Viscount Ishii on relations with Japan and China, 547.
LATIN America, see SOUTH America.
LAUDER, Harry, account of visit to grave of son and to the front, by Dr. G. Adams, 319; on horrors of war, 515.
LAW, A. Bonar, on British reliance on U. S., 192.
LEAGUE of National Unity, 293.

- LEAGUE of Neutral Countries, report of Holland section on Serbian Atrocities, 517.
- LEBANON, account of autonomy and of its abolishment by Turkey, 160.
- LECLERCQ (Gen.), "Creating Belgium's New Army," 98.
- LEDEBOUR, Georg, 95.
- Legend of the Belgian Francs-Tireurs*, 493.
- LENINE, Nikolai, leadership of insurrection, and naming as Premier, 419.
- Lessons of Three Years of Warfare in the Air*, 73.
- LETCHITZKY, (Gen.) P. A., 35.
- LETTERS, last letter of E. Valentini to his mother, 252; appeal to French women by M. Prevost for cheerful letters, 254.
- LEVIATHAN (S. S.), 17.
- LI CHING-HSI, 349.
- LI YUAN-HUNG, President of China, stand on attempted revolt, 350.
- LIBERTY Loan, second issue announcement, 243; subscriptions, 429.
- LIBERTY Motor, see AERONAUTICS.
- LIEBAU, Hans, employment agency, 276.
- LIFEBOATS, see ATROCITIES.
- LILLE, protest of Mayor against extortions of Germans, 512.
- LINDMAN (Admiral), 54.
- LIQUOR Problem, decline of drunkenness in Great Britain, 382.
- See also* PROHIBITION.
- LITTLEFIELD, Walter, "Military Events of the Month," 30, 199, 393.
- LLOYD GEORGE, (Premier) David, telegram of appreciation to Sir D. Haig, 207; promise of air reprisals, 268; reply to Baron Kuehlmann on restoration of Alsace-Lorraine, 289; address in Parliament on a Supreme War Council, I., (Dec. supplement;) speech at Paris on Entente blunders and Supreme War Council, 434; on transport service of British Navy, 472.
- LOGAN, (Col.) Robert, 526.
- LOKOMSKY (Gen.), assailed by Premier Kerensky as traitor, 70.
- LORVEN, Baron, denial of use of Swedish cables for transmission of messages to Berlin from Buenos Aires, 54.
- LUDENDORFF, (Gen.) von, order on conserving "human material," 247.
- LUXBURG, (Count) Karl, text of dispatches to Berlin through Stockholm, on sinking Argentine ships, 53; passport issued by Argentina; official Swedish statement on telegrams, 54; dispatches on Brazilian attitude, 439.
- LYOFF, Vladimir N., as envoy from Korniloff to Kerensky, 69; arrest, 70.

M

- MacGARRITY, Joseph, 231.
- MARIE, Queen of Rumania, message of thanks to America, 516.
- MARIN, Louis, report in French Deputies on war propaganda of Germany in Moslem countries, 157.
- MARTHA Washington (S. S.), requisitioned, 18.
- MASSES, The, declared nonmailable, 236.
- MATANOVITCH (Gen.), demand for Slav State, 165; resignation, 166.
- McLAUGHLIN, M. Louise, "The Beginnings of the War," 481.
- McLAUGHLIN, (Lieut.) William H., 389.
- MARITIME Law, see INTERNATIONAL Law.
- MAXIMILIAN, Emperor of Mexico, 6.
- MEDICAL Aid, see RELIEF Work.

MEDIE (S. S.), 246.

MERCHANT Marine, see SHIPPING.

MEUX, (Admiral Sir) Hedworth, VIII., (December supplement.)

MEXICO, letter from von Eckhardt to Bethmann Hollweg recommending that Herr Cronholm be decorated for services as intermediary at Mexico City, 53; report by Capt. Boehm on crisis purporting to outline Amer. attitude, 278.

MEYER, Eugene, Jr., 226.

MICHAELIS, (Dr.) Georg, interpretation of the Pope's peace note, in Reichstag, 86; on increase in enemy countries, and on war aims of Entente Allies, 88; statement in regard to alleged disclosures at trial of Gen. Soukhomlinoff as to cause of war, 91; criticism by E. Bernstein, 96; answer in Reichstag to criticism of German reply to Papal peace note, 287; resignation as Chancellor, letter of Emperor, 451.

Military Events of the Month, 30, 199, 393.

Military Operations of the War, 113, 310, 473.

MILITARY Science, article by T. G. Frothingham on "Rise and Fall of the Formal Fortress," 300.

MILLE, Pierre, "Fighting Hostile Submarines," 132.

MILLIARD, T. F., on America's duty in China, 354.

MILUKOFF, Paul N., resignation, 67.

MINNEHAHA (transport), 5.

MIRAMAR, and Maxmillian, 6.

Mobilizing Our Industries for War, 223.

MOEBIUS, Max, 277.

MOHAMMEDANS, German war propaganda among, 157.

MONCHEUR (Baron), on starvation in Belgium, 100.

MONTAGUE, Edwin S., on Government of India, 7, 530.

MONTENEGRO, account of famine, 344; intrigues of King with Austria, Cabinet changes due to delay in meeting demands for union with Serbia as Slav State, 163.

See also CROATIA.

Month's Developments, 1, 191, 381.

Month's Developments in Russia, 259.

MORLEY, Christopher, "Spirit of the National Army Camps," 425.

MOROCCO, offered to Spain by Germany, 430; Agadir incident, 484.

MOSCOW Conference, see RUSSIA—Revolution.

MUNITIONS of War, German plot to place embargo, and turbulent session of Congress over resolution, 279.

MUSEUMS, see WAR Museums.

Mutiny in the German Navy, 248.

N

NABOUKOFF, Vladimir, 66.

Name of France, 112.

NATIONAL Council Assembly, Moscow, 63.

NATIONAL Guard see UNITED STATES—Army.

Nations at War, 219.

NAVAL Operations, Germans at Oesel and Dagoe Islands, 194; Germans gaining control of Gulf of Riga, 260; attack by Germans on British convoy in North Sea, with loss of British, Norwegian, Danish, and Swedish vessels; sinking of German raider Crocodile and cruiser Marie in Cattegat waters, 385; around Riga, 401; Record of Australia in the War, 527. See also SUBMARINE Warfare.

NEARING, Scott, home searched, 23.

NEDERLAND Steamship Co., 241.
 NEGRO Troops of U. S. Army, 10.
 NEKRASOFF (Vice Premier), 64.
 NEUMAN, Henry, 278.
New Covenant Between the Great English-Speaking Nations, 141.
New Phase of the Balkan Question, 111.
 NEW YORK Port War Board, 428.
 NEW ZEALAND, article by R. S. Winn on record in the war, 526.
 NEWS Censorship, powers conferred on Postmaster General under Trading with the Enemy Act, 234; clause of Enemy Trading Act and of Espionage Bill; statement by Mr. Burleson; effect on Socialist papers, 235; views of Pres. Wilson as expressed in letter to Max Eastman, 236.
 NI SHIH-CHING (Gen.), 349.
 NICHOLAS I., King of Montenegro, intrigues with Austria and delay in meeting demands for union with Serbia as Slav State, resulting in Cabinet crisis, 163; telegram to King of Italy; abdication suggested, 166.
 NICHOLAS II., Czar of Russia, secret treaty with Kaiser William, 7; account of abdication, by Gen. Russky, 262; account by V. V. Shulgen, 264; correspondence with Emperor William in 1904-1907, aiming at Russo-German-French treaty with object of isolating England, 331; messages from German Emperor and replies, regarding Austrian ultimatum to Serbia; efforts for peace, 488; telegram to Kaiser on mediation, at outbreak of war; telegram to Kaiser on mobilization, 501; telegram to Kaiser on declaration of war, 504.
 NIVEN, (Dr.) Max, 276.
 NORRIS, George William, 235.
 NORTON, Patrick Daniel, 279.
 NOVAKOVITCH, Kosta, 343.

O

OAKLAND Enquirer, 258.
 OESEL Island, 194, 260.
 OFFICERS' Training Camps, see UNITED STATES-Army.
 O'LEARY, Jeremiah, involved in German plots, 278, 281.
Organized Labor on War Issues, 444.
 ORGANIZED Seamen of the British Mercantile Marine, reply to German Seamen's defense of U-boats, 128.

P

PADEREWSKI, I. J., appeal to Poles in U. S. to enlist under Polish standard, 299.
 PAGE, Walter Hines, address on mutual relations of Britain and America, in Plymouth Guildhall, 139.
 PAINLEVE, Paul, on Alsace-Lorraine and French war aims, 294; on problems after war, 295; fall of Cabinet, 381; on Supreme War Council, 435.
 PALESTINE, as home for Jewish people and problem of restoring fertility, 384.
 PALTCHINSKI (M.), 72.
 PAPEN, Franz von, 275.
 PARES (Dr.), on Russian losses, 420.
 PASSPORTS, forged by German agents in Scandinavia, 24.
 PATENTS, provision in Trading with the Enemy Act, 234.
 PAVENSTEDT, Adolph, 283.
 PAYER, Friederich von, 452.
 PEACE, text of reply of Pres. Wilson to proposal of Pope Benedict, 81; comment of New-Yorker Staats-Zeitung and of foreign newspapers on President's reply, 83; interpretation of the Pope's note by Dr. Michaelis, in Reichstag, 86; attitude of parties toward interpretation; resolutions of Hamburg Chamber of Commerce and of Bremen Chamber of Commerce supporting Kaiser, 87; official comment on Pres. Wilson's reply, by Lord Cecil, 89; terms as outlined in declaration of delegates to Socialists London Conference, 95; E. Bernstein and H. Haase on Reichstag resolution, 96; text of memorial of Socialists to Dutch Scandinavian Peace Committee, 97; desire in Germany described by a Hollander, 156; text of Germany's reply to the Pope, 285; "World's Comments on Austro-German Notes"; speeches of Dr. von Seydler, Dr. Michaelis, and Dr. Kuehlmann, 287; debate in Reichstag; basis discussed by Count Czernin, 290; British viewpoint expressed by H. H. Asquith at Leeds, 291; Bolshevik plan, 422; reply of Brazil to the Pope's peace note, 439; report of Federation of Labor, 444.

See also AIMS of War.

PERKOWSKI, Wacław, "Poland's Standard Again on the Field of Battle," 296.
 PERRIS, G. H., description of Chemin des Dames, 414.
 PERRY, Matthew, visit of Viscount Ishii to tomb, and tribute, 52.
 PERSHING, (Gen.) John J., moves headquarters and comments on progress of training, 11; presented with guidon by descendants of French soldiers in Amer. Revolution and with flag ornamented by women of Du Puy, 79; commissioned General, 238.
 PERU, break with Germany, 244.
 PETAIN, (Gen.) Henri, at Verdun, 116.
 PICCO, Francesco, 253.
 PIEZ, Charles A., 428.
 PILSUDSKI (Gen.), 6.
 PIRACY, historical sketch by T. G. Frothingham, 464.

POEMS:-

A. W. K., "The Guns of Flanders," 134.
 Black, Ernest G., "Written on Going Into Action," 295.
 Doyle, (Sir) A. C., "The Guns in Sussex," 93.
 Gale, G. W., "Spurlos Versenkt," 546.
 Hollande, E., "La France Vous Salue, Etoiles!" 495.
 Shillito, E., "July, 1914," 151.
 "Soldiers Back of the Lines," 532.
 Trotter, B. F., "To the Students of Liege," 327.
 Van Dyke, Henry, "The Name of France," 112.

POINCARE, (Pres.) Raymond, election alleged as sign of Franco-Russian Alliance, by Dr. Michaelis, 91; decree creating Polish Army, 296; telegram to King George on German mobilization, 503.

POLAND, regency council supersedes autonomy, 5; new constitution granted by Central Powers to part taken from Russia, 195; article by W. Perkowski on organization of autonomous army with consent of France and Russia; Mission in U. S. working for army, 296; appeal of I. J. Paderewski to Poles in U. S. to join Polish Army, 299.

Poland's Standard Again on the Field of Battle, 296.

POPE, The, and temporal power, 6.

See also BENEDICT XV.

POPOVITCH, Eugene, 167.

PORTUGAL, offered to Spain by Germany, 430.

POSTMASTER General, powers in news censorship, 235.

- POTASH, in Alsace, 386.
Preparing to Fight Germany, 9.
President's Reply to the Pope, 81.
 PREVOST, Marcel, "For Women Who Write to Soldiers," 254.
 PRICE, Ward, 406.
 PRICES, power of War Industries Board, 224; war prices for Allies, 226; fixing steel prices, 227; copper and coal under jurisdiction of Govt., 228; fixed for wheat and sugar, 236.
See also FOODSTUFFS.
 PRISONERS of War, taken by British and by Germans between April 9 and Aug. 22, 2; U. S. plans for handling, 21; taken by Italians in offensive, 32; taken by French at Verdun, 37; taken by Italians in Spring offensive, 146; appalling condition in Serbia, 341; captured by British, 387; taken by Germans in drive for Venice, 397; taken in Palestine, 403; Italian losses in first week of battle of Julian Alps, 404; lost by Germans at Chemin des Dames, 413; captured in Russian advance in Volhynia, Galicia, and Bukovina in 1916, 475; Russo-Rumanian losses, 479; "In the War Prisons of Eastern Siberia," by G. P. Conger, 533.
 PRIVATEERS, T. G. Frothingham on use by England, France, and U. S., 466.
Progress of the War, 27, 220, 415.
 PROHIBITION, making or importation of distilled liquors prohibited under Food Control Act, 236.
See also LIQUOR Problem.
 PROKOPOVITCH (M.), on cost of war to Russia, 64.
 PROTOPOPOFF, A. D., betrayal of Rumania, 167.
 PROVIDENCE Journal, exposes origin of American Embargo Conference, 281.
 PUEYRREDON (Foreign Minister), note to Count Luxburg, 54.

R

- RADOVITCH, Andrew, memoranda to King Nicholas, suggesting Slav State, 163; resignation and decoration by Czar of Russia, 165.
 RAILROADS, control centralized under War Board, 228; statement of achievements, 229.
 RAPALLO Plan, see SUPREME War Council.
 RED Cross, sketch of work of Amer. Red Cross, 24; account of firing on workers by Germans, 513.
See also RELIEF Work.
 REINACH, Joseph, comment on testimony at Soukhomlinoff trial, 507.
 RELIEF Work, American medical aid in France and Belgium, 13; sketch of work of American Red Cross, 24; activities of American Comm. for Belgian Relief, 387; new sanitary measures in Rumania, 522.
 REPLOGLE, J. Leonard, 226.
 REVENTLOW, (Count) Ernst zu, on "Freedom of the Seas," 345.
 RIBAR, (Dr.) Otokar, 344.
 RIGA, see CAMPAIGN in Europe, Eastern.
 RING, Welding, 231.
Rise and Fall of the Formal Fortress, 300.
 ROBINSON, H. Perry, account of firing on Red Cross by Germans, 513.
 ROCHESTER (S. S.), 433.
 RODZIANKO, Michael V., on conduct of Gen. Soukhomlinoff, 262.
Romance of the UC-12, 471.
 ROMANONES, (Count) Alvaro de, as Premier, 59; on offer of Gibraltar to Spain by Germany, 430.

- ROOSEVELT, Theodore, agreement with Japan, 357.
 ROUSSOS, Georges, address on presentation of credentials to U. S., 257; reply of Pres. Wilson, 258.
 RUMANIA, account of betrayal into declaration of war by Sturmer and Protopopoff through intrigue with Berlin, 167; disease germ and explosive plot of German diplomatic agents in Bucharest, 284; reforms promised by King Ferdinand outlined by Queen Marie in letter to America, 516; story of year's progress to reorganization, 521; use of agrarian troubles by Germans as weapon; reform measures of Govt., 523; Dr. C. Angelescu on "Rumania's Efforts and Aspirations," 524; statement of T. Jonescu on Jewish question, 525.
 RUPEL, Fort, disclosures in Greek "White Book," 152.
 RUSSIA:—
 Army, Gen. Korniloff on need of reforms, 65; measures demanded by Cossacks, through Gen. Kaledine, 66; Gen. Alexeeff on disintegration, 66; account of revolt under Gen. Korniloff, 69; mobilization as cause of war, comment of Dr. Michaelis on testimony of Gen. Januschkevitch, 92; Poles permitted to form new Polish Army, 298; origin of Cossacks and present strength, 385; time of mobilization, 489; documents bearing on mobilization discussed by D. J. Hill, 501; testimony on mobilization by Gen. Januschkevitch and Gen. Soukhomlinoff at trial of latter, 504.
 Cabinet, Coalition Cabinet named by Kerensky, 259; fall of Kerensky Govt., 419; members of Bolshevik Cabinet headed by Lenine, 423.
 Council of Workmen's and Soldiers' Delegates, proclamations in revolt against Provisional Govt., 421.
 Finances, abnormal condition of budget; enormous cost of Kerensky regime, 64; subscription to Russia's second Liberty Loan, 430; serious plight; U. S. credit, 438.
 Germany, Relations with, see GERMANY—Russia, Relations with.
 Government, see Revolution below.
 Napoleonic invasion, compared with present German advance, 3.
 Political parties, article on Socialist factions and what they stand for, 265.
 Republic, proclaimed by Kerensky, 1.
 Revolution, compared with French Revolution, 2; "Moscow Conference and Gen. Korniloff's attempt to Overthrow the Kerensky Government," 63; extracts from speeches of Kerensky in Duma, foreshadowing events, 107; former officials in prison, 192; meeting of Democratic Congress; Coalition Cabinet named by Kerensky, 259; new parliament; statement of Korniloff on revolt, 260; conviction of Soukhomlinoff, 261; account of Czar's abdication by Gen. Russky, and V. V. Shulgin, 262; article on overthrow of Kerensky Govt. and rise of Bolsheviks, 419.
 United States, Relations with, see under UNITED STATES.
 RUSSKY, (Gen.), Nicholas V., appointed Commander in Chief, 72; account of abdication of Czar, 262.
 RUSSO-Japanese War, telegrams between Nicholas V. and Emperor William, pertaining to England's attitude toward coaling of Russian ships, and to Dogger Bank incident, 331.

S

- SAULSBURY, Willard, welcome to Viscount Ishii in Senate, 51.

- Scene of Carnage at Le Mort Homme*, 48.
- SCHMIDT, Hugo, 282.
- SCOTT, Frank A., on functions of War Industries Board, 225.
- SEAMEN'S International Conference, meeting of seamen and firemen of allied and neutral countries in London to consider crimes of U-boats; resolutions and list of cases of firing on lifeboats, 131.
- SEAS, Freedom of, see INTERNATIONAL Law.
- Secret Diplomacy of Two Autocrats*, 331.
- SEDITION, see ESPIONAGE Act; GERMAN Plots.
- SELENSKI, G., account of drowning of crew of Belgian Prince, by submarine, 55.
- SENLIS, France, 455.
- SERBIA, reorganization as Yugoslavia, 111; crises in Montenegro over demands for union as Slav State, 163; French aid to education of Serbians, 309; account of suffering of people and treatment by Germans in endeavor to wipe out population, 340; account of Austrian ultimatum and events leading to war, by M. L. McLaughlin, 485; report by Holland section of League of Neutral Countries, on deportations, efforts to stamp out language and other efforts to destroy nation, 517; plans for union with Croatia, 520.
- See also* CAMPAIGN in Europe, Balkan States.
- SERMONS, text of sermon preached by Archbishop of Canterbury at opening of fourth year of war, in Westminster Abbey, 143.
- SETON, (Dr.) Walter W., "Romance of the UC-12," 471.
- SEYDLER, (Dr.) von, on Papal peace note, 287.
- SHEPPARD, Morris, statement on bill legalizing Aircraft Board, 12.
- SHILLITO, Edward, poem, "July, 1914," 151.
- SHIPBUILDING, U. S. program, 18; A. Hurd on normal output of England, 136; gigantic enterprise of Kuhara Fusanosuke in Japan, 198; estimate of output for 1917 and 1918, by Pres. Powell; Sec. Daniels on increase in destroyers, 387; contracts of Emergency Fleet Corporation, 427.
- SHIPPING, British losses for Aug.-Sept., 5; progress and program of Shipping Board in creation of fleet to meet war emergency, 17; British Admiralty figures for losses from Mar.-July, 135; C. H. Grasty on total tonnage lost from Jan.-Aug., 137; table showing world's available tonnage; program of board, 230; vessels commandeered and chartering commission created; British view of emergency, 231; predicament of French Govt.; Japanese problems, 232; effect of ban on bunker coal on Dutch and Scandinavian trade, 241; U. S. demands on Dutch shipping, 241; submarine sinkings for month ending Oct. 14, 246; "The United States as a Shipowner," 427; changes in Emergency Fleet Corporation; creation of New York Port War Board; agreements with foreign nations for use of ships, 428; submarine sinkings of month, 431.
- See also* ARMED Merchant Ships; EXPORTS, SUBMARINE Warfare.
- SHIPPING Board, U. S., work in creation of mercantile marine, 17, 427.
- SHULGINE, see CHOULGINE.
- Slang and Slogans of War in France*, 250.
- SLAVS, see CROATIA; YUGOSLAVIA.
- SMOOT, Reed, 243.
- SMUTS, (Gen.) Jan Christian, on air reprisals, 268.
- SNELL, William, account of "Belgian Prince U-boat Crime," 56.
- SOCIALISTS, history of efforts for international federation, 4; London conference of allied nations; declaration of delegates, 94; incomplete conference at Stockholm and decision not to call next conference in Sweden, 95; attack on Reichstag peace resolution by E. Bernstein and H. Haase, 96; text of memorial to Dutch-Scandinavian Peace Committee, 97; attitude of U. S. Govt. toward censorship of Socialist papers, 235; attitude of Pres. Wilson in letter to Max Eastman on censorship, 236; accused of fomenting mutiny in German Navy, 248; article on what various factions in Russia stand for, 265.
- Soldiers Back of the Lines*, 532.
- SOUKHOMLINOFF (Gen.), statement by Dr. Michaelis alleging disclosures of Russian responsibility for war in trial, 91; treason compared with that of Admiral Byng and Marshal Bazaine, 198; trial and conviction, 261; testimony on Russian mobilization at trial, 505.
- SOUTH America, brief sketch of history, 195; stand of Latin America on war, 244; nations which have broken with Germany, 245.
- See also* names of countries.
- SPAIN, article by M. de J. Galvan on Spanish public opinion and politics during European war, 58; statement of Count Romanones on offer of Gibraltar, Morocco and Portugal by Germany, 430.
- Spirit of the National Army Camps*, 425.
- SPRING-RICE, Cecil, on status of armed merchant ship, 469.
- "Spurlos Versenkt," 546.
- ST. QUENTIN, destruction of cathedral and removal of art works to Maubeuge by Germans, 80.
- STADTHAGEN, Arthur, 95.
- STANOYEVICH, Milivoj S., "A New Phase of the Balkan Question," 111.
- STEEL, schedule of prices fixed, 226.
- STOCKHOLM Conference of Socialists, see INTERNATIONAL Conference of Socialists.
- STRIKES in Spain caused by high prices, 60.
- STUERMER, Boris, betrayal of Rumania, 107.
- STUERMER, (Dr.) Harry, "Germany and the Armenian Atrocities," 336.
- Submarine Sinkings in Eight Months*, 137.
- SUBMARINE Warfare, merchant ships sunk, 5; account of deliberate drowning of crew of S. S. Belgian Prince, told by survivors, 55; article by Lieut. Gill on "Anti-Submarine Tactics," 125; text of report of German Seaman's Union in defense of U-boats, 126; British Seamen's reply, 128; resolutions of International Seamen's Conference in London, on U-boat crimes; list of cases of firing on lifeboats, 131; article by P. Mille on methods used by French and Italian navies in fighting hostile submarines, 132; survey of year by A. Hurd; figures of British Admiralty from March to July, 134; article by C. H. Grasty on tonnage sunk from January to August, 137; sinkings of the month, 246; sinkings for month; Sir Eric Geddes on situation, 431; first American naval losses, 432; complications due to arming merchant vessels, 470; account by Dr. Seton of use of German submarine UC-12 against Italy before declaration of war, 471.
- SUGAR, placed under Govt. control; Mr. Hoover on necessity for economy, 237; shortage, 429.
- SUN YAT-SEN (Dr.), and Chinese revolt, 352.
- SUPREME War Council of Allies, summary of speech of H. H. Asquith in Parliament in opening discussion, and text of address of Lloyd George in defense of plan to establish council, in reply, I., (Dec. supplement); account of conference of Premiers at Rapallo, resulting in creation of council; text of agreement, 434; opposition in England, 436; mission of Col. House, 437; indorsement by Pres. Wilson, 438.

Surrender of Chang Hsun's Army, 354.

SWEDEN, account of use of Foreign Office for transmission of telegrams to Berlin from Count Luxburg at Buenos Aires; text of telegrams; text of note from von Eckhardt to Bethmann Hollweg recommending Swedish Charge d'Affaires at Mexico City, Herr Cronholm for decoration for acting as intermediary between German legation and Berlin, 53; official Swedish statement, 54; exposure of Buenos Aires affair causes decision to not call next conference of Socialists in Sweden, 95; German sympathies and Bernadotte, 196.

Systematic Exploitation of Belgium, 510.

T

TAFT, William Howard, on agreement made by Pres. Roosevelt with Japan, 357.

TALLEYRAND, Charles Maurice, Duke de, at Congress of Vienna, 539.

TANKS, see AUTOMOBILES.

TATISCHTSCHOFF (Gen.), 92.

TCHUIDSE, N. C., measures advocated in Moscow council, 66.

TEPLOVEST (Gen.), 72.

TERRITORY Occupied, by British, 387.

THEOTOKIS (M.), 334.

Third Year of the Blockade, 135.

To the Students of Liege, 327.

TORPEDOPLANE, 76.

TRADING With the Enemy Act, provisions and purpose, 233.

TRAINING CAMPS, see UNITED STATES—Army.

Treachery of King Constantine and His Queen, 457.

TREASON, trials of famous commanders, 197.

TREATY of Bucharest, 484.

TROTTER, Bernard Freeman, "To the Students of Liege," 327.

TROTZKY, Leon, 419.

TUBERCULOSIS in France, work of Red Cross to combat, 26.

TURKEY, abolishment of autonomy of Lebanon, 160; disclosures in Greek "White Book" of secret treaty with Germany at time of supposed neutrality; account of events preceding entry into war, by correspondent of Westminster Gazette, 334.

See also ATROCITIES; CAMPAIGN in Asia Minor; PALESTINE.

Turkey's Heavy Hand in Syria, 160.

U

U-Boat Sinkings of the Month, 430.

UC-12, account of exploits, 471.

UNITED STATES—

Army, progress of preparation for war in six months, 9; proposed strength, 10; table giving National Guard camps, 14; table of National Army cantonments, Signal Corps Aviation camps, 15; officers' training camps, 16; editorial from London Telegraph on marching of troops through London and its significance, 141; number in France at end of October, 191; progress in mobilization and training for duty abroad, 237; Maj. Gens. Bliss and Pershing commissioned Generals; previous holders of rank, and salary; other changes in rank, 238; account of first fight on French soil, 388; first casualties; French tribute to dead, 389; official list of wounded and missing, 390; article describing training in France by L. Jerrold, 391; figures for strength, Nov. 7; Pres. Wilson on classification of men registered under conscription act; order in which classes will be called, 424; placing of officers graduated from training camps; article on Camp Dix by C. Morley, 425.

See also INSURANCE.

China, Relations with, text of Amer. note on revolt, 350; Japanese attitude toward note, 351; views of Wu Ting-fang, C. T. Wang, and T. F. Millard on duties of relationship, 353; statement of Viscount Ishii assuring U. S. of open door, 356; text of Lansing-Ishii agreement, recognizing Japanese interest, 547.

Commission to Allies, list of members and object, 437.

Congress, close of historic session opened by war message, 191; telegram of Bernstorff to Berlin asking for $50,000 to influence Congress; turbulent session following disclosure, 279; the McLeure resolution traced to German influence, 281.

Economic mobilization, account of progress in six months, 223-237.

England, Relations with, question of commandeering ships building for British interest, 19; speech of W. H. Page in Guildhall, Plymouth, 139; editorial in London Telegraph, "A New Covenant," 141; B. Law on British reliance upon U. S., 192.

Finances, contemplated war expenditures and revenue, 1; provisions of war appropriation bill, 2; embargo on coin, bullion, and currency, 239; finances, table showing distribution of appropriations and methods of meeting expenditures; war revenue bill; second Liberty Loan, 243; success of second Liberty Loan, 429; credits and advances to the Allies; expenditures during Oct., 430; credit advanced to Russia, 438.

Japan, Relations with, see JAPAN.

Navy, activities during last six months, 12; plans for increase in number of destroyers, 13; list of training camps and stations, 16; establishment and work of Naval Consulting Board and Committee on Industrial Preparedness, 223; activity, construction program and cost, 238; Sec. Daniels on increase in destroyers, 387.

See also INSURANCE.

Russia, Relations with, notice issued by Kerensky to American people, on Korniloff revolt, 71.

War with Germany, resolutions of American Alliance for Labor and Democracy, expressing aims of war, 90; address of Pres. Wilson before Amer. Federation of Labor, 441; "Organized Labor on War Issues," 444; A. Bennett on "Effect of the U. S. in the War," 446.

URUGUAY, break with Germany; friction with Argentina, 245.

V

VAN DYKE, Henry, poem, "The Name of France," 112.

VANDERLIP, Frank A., war service, 244.

VALENTINI, Enzo, letter to mother, 252; tribute by F. Picco; death, 254.

VATERLAND (S. S.), see LEVIATHAN.

VAUGHAN, Crawford, 162.
 VENICE, historical sketch, 383.
See also CAMPAIGN in Europe, Austro-Italian Border.
 VENIZELOS, Eleutherios, statement on final trial of monarchy, 154; disclosure of war policy of King Constantine before Commission of Inquiry, 256.
 VEDEROSKI, (Admiral) Dmitri N., 72.
 VERSKOVSKY (Col), 72.
 VIENNA, see CONGRESS of Vienna.
 VIRGILI, (Lieut.) Alberto, 450.
 VITAL Statistics, article showing effect of war on births and deaths in England and Germany, 247.

W

WANG, (Hon.) C. T., on Chinese issue, 346; on Chinese crisis and American influence, 353.
 WAR Council, see SUPREME War Council.
 WAR Industries Board, see COUNCIL of National Defense.
War Record of the British Dependencies, 359.
 WAR Revenue Bill, 243.
 WAR Trade Board, organization, 233.
 WAR museums, in France, 453.
 WAR Trade Council, advisory to War Trade Board, 233.
 WARNER, Arthur H., "Slang and Slogans of War in France," 250.
 WASHINGTON, George, speech of Viscount Ishii at tomb at Mount Vernon, 51.
 WEDGWOOD (Commander), VIII. (Dec. supplement).
 WESTCOTT, Allan, "A Historic Peace Conference," 538.
 WESTMINSTER Gazette, account of events preceding entry of Turkey into war, 334.
 WHEAT, control by U. S. Govt., 236.
 WHEELER, W. Reginald, "The Attempted Restoration of the Manchus in China," 346.
 WHITE, (Rev.) George E., account of Armenian atrocities, 339.
Who Was Responsible for the War? 91.
 WILLIAM II., Emperor of Germany, address on Aug. 24 to German battalions, expressing hatred toward England, 2; secret treaty with Czar of Russia destroyed through efforts of Count Witte, 7; congratulations on capture of Riga, 69; resolutions of loyalty by Hamburg and Bremen Chambers of Commerce, 87; correspondence with Emperor William in 1904-1907 aiming at treaty between Germany, Russia, and France, with object of isolating England, 331; negotiations for entry of Turkey into war, 334; letter to Dr. Michaelis on resignation, 451; telegrams from King and Queen of Greece, and reply, 457; extract from letter to Pres. Wilson on outbreak of war, 487; dispatches to Czar on outbreak of war, 488; statement on invasion of Belgium in letter to Pres. Wilson, 490; responsibility discussed by D. J. Hill in analysis of documents bearing on outbreak of war, 496; documents of correspondence with King George on outbreak of war, 508.
 WILLIAM, Crown Prince of Germany, at Verdun, 116.

"WILLY - NICKY" correspondence, see WILLIAM II., Emperor of Germany.
 WILSON, Havelock, 131.
 WILSON, (Gen. Sir) Henry Hughes, 434.
 WILSON, (Pres.) Woodrow, message to national army; letter to T. L. Chadbourne, Jr., 11; reply to speech of Viscount Ishii, 50; message to National Council Assembly at Moscow, 67; text of reply to Pope Benedict's peace proposal, 81; comment on reply by New-Yorker Staats-Zeitung and by foreign press, 83; resolution of Hamburg and Bremen Chambers of Commerce protesting against reply to the Pope, 87; comment by Lord Cecil on reply, 89; war aims supported by American labor, 90; editorial comment on ascendancy over Congress, 192; statement on determination for price of wheat, letter to M. Eastman on censorship, 236; reply to address of G. Roussos, 258; comment by Dr. Michaelis on reply to Papal note, 288; attitude toward German peace agitation as expressed to League of National Unity, 293; telegram to King Albert on Belgian fete day and telegram to loyalty conference at St. Paul, 386; foreword to regulations for classification of registered men, 424; indorsement of Supreme War Council, 438; telegram to Pres. of Brazil on entry into war, 439; text of address before American Federation of Labor, 441; extract from letter from German Emperor on outbreak of war, 487, 490.
 WINN, Robert Sumner, "Australasia's Record in the War," 526.
 WITTE, (Count) Sergius Y., forces Czar to destroy treaty with Germany against England, 7, 333.
 WOMEN, employment in Germany on railways; anxiety as to future of workers, 156; appeal by M. Provost to French for cheering letters, 254; rumor of use of hair in place of leather in Germany, 449.
 WOOD, Bryan, 514.
 WOOD, H., "The Dogs of War," 161.
 WORFOLK, Ellen, 450.
World at War, 5.
Worldwide Embargo Against Germany, 239.
Written on Going Into Action, 295.
 WU TING-FANG (Dr.), appointed acting Premier, 349; Minister of Foreign Affairs, 352; address at American University Club on America's duty to China, 353.

Y

YANUSHKEVITCH (Gen.), testimony on Russian mobilization, 92, 505.
 YOUNG Men's Christian Association, work at cantonments, 426.
 YOUSSEUF Izeddin, Prince, 335.
 YUGOSLAVIA, declaration of formation of State, 111; memoranda of A. Radovitch to King Nicholas suggesting union of Montenegro and Serbia as Slav State, suggestions of Gen. Matanovitch and of Mr. Ilitch, 163.
See also CROATIA.

Z

ZENNECK, Jonathan, 22.
 ZIMMERMANN, (Dr.) Alfred, telegrams to Bernstorff in connection with German plots, 280.

Portraits

ALLEN, (Gen.) Henry T., 79.
 AOSTA, Duke of, 1.

BARNES, George N., 427.
 BARUCH, Bernard M., 95.

- BELL, (Maj. Gen.) George, Jr., 204.
 BELOW, (Gen.) von, 410.
 BLISS, (Gen.) Tasker H., 191.
 BROOKINGS, Robert S., 95.
 BRUSILOFF, (Gen.) A. A., 473.
 CANTERBURY, Archbishop of, 15.
 CAPPS, (Admiral) W. L., 94.
 COLBY, Bainbridge, 94, 394.
 CRONKHITE, (Maj. Gen.) Adelbert, 205.
 CROSBY, Oscar T., 394.
 CZERNIN, (Count) Ottokar von, 285.
 DATO, Eduardo, 60.
 DAVIDSON, (Most Rev.) Randall T., 15.
 FRENCH, (Gen.) F. H., 79.
 GARFIELD, (Dr.) Harry A., 95.
 GREBLE (Maj. Gen.) E. St. J., 204.
 HERTLING, (Count) Georg von, 380.
 HILL, David Jayne, 497.
 HODGES, (Maj. Gen.) Harry F., 205.
 HODGES, (Maj. Gen.) Henry C., 204.
 HOUSE, (Col.) Edward M., 394.
 HURLEY, Edwin N., 94.
 ISHII, (Viscount) Kikujiro, 547.
 KENNEDY, (Maj. Gen.) C. W., 205.
 KERNAN, (Gen.) F. J., 78.
 KROBATIN, (Gen.) Alexander von, 411.
 KUEHLMANN, (Baron) Richard von, 284.
 KUHN, (Maj. Gen.) J. E., 205.
 LECHITSKY (Gen.), 475.
 LINDLEY, (Judge), C. H., 395.
 LINSINGEN, (Gen.) von, 478.
 LOVETT, Robert S., 95.
 McCORMICK, Vance, 394.
 MANN, (Gen.) William A., 78.
 NICHOLAS II., Czar of Russia, 142.
 ORLANDO, Vittorio, 381.
 O'RYAN, (Gen.) John, 78.
 PAGE, Charles R., 395.
 PAINLEVE, Paul, 1.
 PALMER, A. Mitchell, 395.
 PARKER, (Gen.) James, 78.
 PETAIN, (Gen.) Henri, 117.
 PLUMER, (Gen. Sir) H. C. O., 427.
 RAWLINSON (Gen. Sir), 311.
 READING (Lord), 427.
 REDFIELD, William C., 94.
 SARRAIL (Gen.), 115.
 SCOTT, (Maj. Gen.) Hugh L., 191.
 SMUTS, (Gen.) Jan Christian, 426.
 STRONG, (Gen.) F. S., 79.
 SWIFT, (Gen.) Eben, 79.
 SWINTON, (Col.) E., 427.
 VANDERLIP, Frank A., 395.
 WILLIAM, Crown Prince of Germany, 114.
 WILSON, (Pres.) Woodrow, and Cabinet, 14.
 WRIGHT, (Maj. Gen.) W. M., 204.

Illustrations

- ALCEDO (patrol), 432.
 AMBULANCE Men's Difficult Work, 523.
 AMERICAN Expeditionary Force, 458.
 AMERICAN Troops in Training "Somewhere in France," 236.
 AMERICA'S New Army in Training, 474.
 ARMED Merchantmen, 1834-1844, 467-8.
 AUSTRIAN Prisoners in Siberia, 532.
 BATTLE in the Mud in Flanders, 522.
 BOLSHEVIKI Leaders, 419.
 BRITISH Big Guns at Work, 47.
 BRITISH "Tank" in Liberty Loan Parade, 546.
 CONGRESS of Vienna, 540.
 CRATER Zone on Western Front, 333.
 DEPARTURE of New York National Guard, 31.
 FEUDAL Castle, Birdseye View, 304.
 FORTRESSES (diagrams), 301-308.
 FRENCH Drive in Flanders, 506.
 FRENCH Train Riddled by Bullets, 126.
 GERMANS Captured in Battle of Flanders, 317.
 LE MORT Homme, after battle, 507.
 LIBERTY Loan, demonstration outside City Hall, New York, 268.
 LIBERTY Loan Parade in Philadelphia, 459.
 LIBERTY Loan Poster, 190.
 NATIONAL Army Celebration, 30.
 PRIVATEER of War of 1812, 466.
 RED Cross Parade, New York, 269.
 RIGA, Church of Alexander III., 127.
 RUINS of La Coulotte, 332.
 RUSSIAN Girl Soldiers, 143.
 RUSSIAN Soldiers in Retreat, 316.
 SMASHING Wire Entanglements, 126.
 TYPICAL Cantonment of National Army, 221.
 TYPICAL Scene at New Army Camp, 475.
 UNITED STATES Naval Encampment at Newport, 220.
 UNITED STATES Soldiers Guarding Legation at Peking, 349.
 UNITED STATES Soldiers Wearing Steel Helmets, 237.
 UNITED STATES Troops in London, 46.

Maps

- ASIA Minor Campaign, 205.
 CHEMIN des Dames, 399.
 FLANDERS, British gains, 200; after capture of Passchendaele, 398.
 ITALIAN Campaign, drive in Julian Alps, 32; Isonzo front, 148; entire front, 397; region inundated to save Venice, 406.
 PALESTINE, British advance, 402.
 RIGA, German advance, 35; Gulf, and Dagoc and Oesel Islands, 203.
 RUSSIAN Campaign in 1916, 476.
 SOMME Battle, 314.
 TANNENBERG and Masurian Lakes, 323.
 VERDUN, French gains, 36; German gains in 1916, 118.

Cartoons

CARTOONS, 171-190, 273, 361-380, 551-570.

